

Mother Nature

Our Father's Maternal Spirit

May 11, 2025

Today we're examining what makes a mother's love matter so much! Cuz, there's a whole lotta love goin' on in this life, but for some reason God made motherly love something specifically special. And since the earthly appearance of love's different dimensions just reflects our Father's nature, motherly love must be a critical component of His character – and therefore, it ought to be an essential element of Christian life that we're all supposed to emulate! So: Do you love like a mother?

Now, before we get going, I wanna be clear – we're talking about the love that's supposed to come from a mother in a perfect world; but as we know, this place ain't that. Some of us have mothers who don't act like mothers, some of us have mothers who overact as mothers, and some of us lost our moms or never even knew who they were. But today, we're talking about what a mother is supposed to be – and the type of love that they were specifically supposed to model.

Cuz, as Christians, we love to throw the word "love" around like we invented and perfected it even if we've never inspected or dissected it! And that can be a problem since it can produce a one-dimensional view of our relationships, our God, and our calling – when we're supposed to pursue a life with the maximum expression of all of love's dimensions; cuz that's the consummate love that leads everyone and everything into the perfect and purposed life. Cuz consummate love is complete in every way. And only that love completes us, cuz only that love creates the confidence we need to have in our decisions and our destiny – so we can live like Jesus. Like John says:

Perfect love drives out fear – 1 John 4:18 NIV

But, to have perfect love, we need to understand perfect love and all of the components that make it consummate. We gotta go beyond romance!

And that's hard for our culture – cuz when we hear the word love, we've been conditioned to assume romantic relationships are the most important; which is why most of our magazine covers say something like; "You'll never guess which celebrity was caught canoodling with this NFL 'bad boy!'" but you never see one with that says, "Shocking photos of Julia Roberts pushing her twins on a swingset!" And it's why there's a lot more pop songs about hooking up than changing diapers!

But, beyond romantic love, there's friendly love, family love, and self-love. There's the love of nature, the love of neighbors, and everything in-between. And although each love is an essential experience in our quest to understand and emulate God's consummate love, some forms are just more foundational – and it's no coincidence that we're born to with a need to know parental love first!

In fact, it's unavoidable – we were created weak so we would have to learn that without parental care, we wouldn't last a week! So, why does romantic love get all the attention when parents do all the heavy lifting? Well, in a nutshell, it's just more exciting. Cuz romantic love is elective and elusive – so it's an adventure to attain it and an achievement to retain it. Whereas parental love is something you're born with and sticks around whether you want it or not – which unfortunately means it's easy to ignore and hard to lose. And let's face it, the squeaky wheel gets the grease – so the patient love of a parent is often overlooked or taken for granted. But if there's one thing we all learn from our relationship with God, it's a lack of appreciation does not mean a lack of power!

And there's no better illustration than the legend of a mom's love being so strong, that it allowed her to summon the supernatural strength to lift a car to save her son. Cuz it's not just a nice idea, according to the Associated Press, it's a true story! The woman's name was Angela Cavallo, and she still lives in Lawrenceville, Georgia, where the incident happened on April 9, 1982. Her son Tony had removed a rear tire of a '64 Impala to work on the suspension – and while adjusting, he rocked it off the jacks and it fell on him. But when a neighbor kid ran in to tell her, she rushed out and lifted the car off her son. And although Angela doesn't remember much about the rescue, the AP reported that two neighbors said they reinserted the jack and dragged the boy out – all while mom just held it up! And now, this phenomenon has a name; it's called "Hysterical Strength." But maybe we should call it, "Lovin' like a mother!" Cuz moms are often defined by the overpowering, unstoppable, determined and dependable love that puts us at ease when we feel crushed by the worries of this world. And that innate instinct is an intentional illustration of the part of God's love that drives out fear. Cuz He promised:

As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; – Isaiah 66:13 NIV

Which means God created mothers to be the trusted example of how His supernatural love soothes, reassures, encourages, and empowers us; Mom love illustrates how the power of God's love can create confidence.

[So, like Paul, we can say] I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God – Romans 8:38-39 NIV

And that's one of the most important verses in the entire Bible because faith is fragile without reliability, but strong belief is built on strong evidence. And all our best evidence comes from our earthly experience; it's the data that convinces us. And God designed our lives to begin with an experience of dependence on mothers– so on some level, we'd recognize the power of trustworthy love.

And just last year, science confirmed the superiority of our first love, when researchers at Aalto University in Finland used an MRI to measure how intensely six different types of love activated specific regions of our brains. And of all the types of love measured, they found that parental love generated the biggest and strongest activity; with mothers' brains activating even more intensely and automatically than fathers' – indicating a uniquely constant connection to their children.

But I can hear you now, “Sure Noah, that’s cute and all, but aren’t you just stretching things to make it a better Mother’s Day message?” And I’d say “Well, yeah, that’s how it started – but when I began my deeper Scriptural study, our Father’s motherly love just leapt of the page!” Like the weird Psalms about God being like a mother hen:

He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. – Psalms 91:4 NIV

And even though there’s plenty of masculine metaphors, not only does God the Father stick with a motherly analogy, Jesus, the Son, keeps the confusing comparison going when He, Himself said:

How often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing. – Matthew 23:37 NIV

Which begs the question, how can the Father and the Son love like a mother? Well, with their Spirit! Because, the Trinity includes Father, Son, and Spirit and through each, God expresses His love differently. The Father is the source and strength of love, the Son is the image and act of love, and the Spirit is the experience and explanation of love.

God is love. – 1 John 4:8 NIV

The Son is the image of the invisible God – Colossians 1:15 NIV

And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. – 1 John 5:6 NIV

The Holy Spirit takes the truth of who God is and what He did through Jesus– and unpacks what that means for us. And since the Spirit makes us feel the reality of why Jesus died for you and me,

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. – 1 Corinthians 12:3 NIV

Because it’s only when we understand the Father’s love saved us through the Son’s sacrifice – that God’s consummate love hits home as His Spirit unfolds it from within our heart! Confusing?

Imagine you’re an orphan in a cold and broken boarding house. Well, the Father signs the adoption papers out of sheer love. Then, the Son gives His life savings to cover all the legal costs to bring you home. But when you arrive at the house, it’s the Spirit who kneels down, hugs you, and whispers, “Welcome home, you’re family now and we love you.”

It’s not until that motherly hug that God’s love feels real and the reality of your new life starts to change how you think. You won’t be hungry any more, you won’t feel cold any more, and even though life won’t be perfect, you won’t be scared now that you know someone stronger is looking out for you. Well, in the same way, it wasn’t until God’s Spirit that His love felt real and changed us:

[Because] God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. [who Jesus even called the “Comforter” (Jn 14:16)] You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. – Romans 5:5-6 NIV

And when the Son died, the Spirit could finally lead us all to understand and experience what the Father has been doing with all of human history – God’s been working to bring His kids home!

[Cuz] The Spirit you received brought about your adoption. – Romans 8:15 NIV

[Since] Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. – John 3:6 NIV

So, I’m not trying to make a big theological point or rock any doctrinal boats, but – if something protects like a mother, comforts like a mother, and gives birth like a mother – I think it’s safe to say, it loves like a mother! Which means the Holy Spirit is the instrument of the Father’s motherly love!

Because each one of us was born to some earthly mother who was designed to provide our first experience and explanation of love. Someone stepped in when we were powerless and gave us a tangible taste of powerful protection, calming comfort, and an inspiring identity. And likewise,

The Spirit helps us in our weakness ... because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God. – Romans 8:26-27 NIV

Cuz just as we all received some sort of mother as the foundation for us to learn about all the other forms of love we’ll find in the future –

[God] put His Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come. [And like a mother’s unconditional love] – 2 Corinthians 1:22 NIV

[God] saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of His mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit – Titus 3:5-6 NIV

Because above all, we need to know that only God’s love conquers all. Cuz only God’s love is consummate enough to give us the confidence to say:

If God is for us, who can be against us? – Romans 8:31 NIV

And yet, before any of us were ever spiritually mature enough to believe that – every one of us was once young enough to believe that, “If mom is for us, who can be against us?” But as powerful as a mother’s love can be, remember, Mother’s Day only exists because a mother’s love is so easy to ignore. It’s actually because her fierce protection is so faithfully present that we stop noticing it and start taking it for granted. And just as God gave us mothers to remind us what makes the Spirit’s love so special, forgetting to appreciate mom means forgetting to appreciate God. So happy Mother’s Day moms – that guilt trip is on me!

However, when we do stop to honor the often overlooked power of our mothers’ love, we’re simultaneously celebrating the selfless strength of God’s Holy Spirit. Cuz a mother’s love may be proven to be the most powerful love we can produce – but it’s still just a shadow of the power that God pours out on all His children through His Spirit. So, remember, Mother’s Day is all about loving like a mom and whether you are a mom, had a mom, lost a mom, or longed for one – everyone in this room has been called to celebrate the Spirit by loving like a mom – cuz God wants every earthly kid to have a taste of that special love that can lift cars, save lives, and lead us home!
