

Legion & Leviathan

Stockpiling Stories So God Can Speak

May 1, 2022

Today Legion and Leviathan are going to help us learn to enjoy God's Word a little bit more.

Here's a question I'm often asked: What's the best Bible to get? And after decades of experience here, I can give you a definitive answer: The One you'll read! It's like asking which piano is best when you start to play. Does it matter all that much? Cuz, if you're serious about playing, you'll be practicing and upgrading as you go.

Since it's close to Easter, I thought it'd be fun to dig into the empty tomb. Not the one Jesus rose from; the one vacated by the escaped, chain-breaking, totally naked, self-mutilated, and insane Gadarene who'd taken up residence in the tombs across the Sea of Galilee from Capernaum, who was teeming with a legion of demons, till Jesus arrived and sent 'em squealing into 2,000 pigs. You see ...

In the past God spoke to our forefathers [like Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob/Israel] ... but in these last days [which began 2,000 years ago] He has spoken to us by His Son, – Hebrews 1:1-2 NIV

Who died and rose 2,000 years ago. And 2,000 years before that, Jacob/Israel just died.

[So] Jacob called his [twelve] sons [who became the twelve tribes of Israel] and said, "Gather together, that I [as a "forefather"] may tell you what shall befall you in the last days [2,000 years later (when God speaks through Jesus). And when Jacob gets to son #7, he suddenly shouts] ... I have waited for Your Salvation, [Yeshua/Jesus] O Lord! Gad, [of the land of the Gadarene] a troop [in Greek: legion] shall tramp upon him, but he shall triumph at [the] last." [Who? Gad? Or Yeshua/Jesus/Salvation?] – Genesis 49:1, 18-19 NKJ

I'm guessing it's at the last, when God spoke through His Son, Yeshua/Salvation, in the desolate land of Gad, while it was literally being tramped on by 2,000 pigs and a legion of demons, in that lone Gadarene; when Yeshua/Salvation triumphed with a pig for each year that Jacob had to wait!

And it all took place the same night, and just after, Jesus ordered a hurricane to stop blowing; and it did. And then told the massive waves that were swamping the boats to stop moving; and they did. And His boys are freaked out and terrified – of Him – because they had no idea they were doing Psalm 107; you know, the ol' ...

... tempest that lifted high the waves. ... [And] in their peril their courage melted away ... they were at their wits' end. Then they cried out to the Lord ... [and] He stilled the storm to a whisper; [and] the waves of the sea were hushed. – Psalm 107:23-29 NIV

Poor boys. They have no idea they're about to do what God spoke to Gad. Noah said my Easter sermon lit him up – well, his sermon last Sunday, about loading in the stories, lit me up! Because, about 15 years ago, I came to my Psalm 107 “wit’s end” with the Bible. And I threw it down on Ken Ekle’s desk and said, “If God can’t write a book that makes sense, He can’t be God.” At which point Ken swiveled his chair, patted his lap, and said, “Tell daddy what the problem is.” Which was just the light heartedness I needed to begin my escape from my “me-deep” despair. And my-oh-my how that has all changed! You see, I didn’t go to seminary, I went to film school. I thought I’d be a producer, not a pastor, cuz I enjoyed reading scripts far more than Scripture. But, turns out, to my delight, I read it wrong. Scripture isn’t written in *theology (that’s beliefs and theories based on what’s written); it’s written almost entirely in *story. Tough on Pharisees, but kids love it! So, want to find His Way? Then Act like His kid!

He doesn’t ask us to comprehend it or control it, just to know it. And enjoy it. And get absorbed in it. When I came to my wit’s end, I realized I didn’t enjoy it cuz I barely knew it. Which came as quite a shock, because it’s the ol’ study vs. story that Noah was talking about. I read a lot about it ... just not so much it-it. But that’s the only way it works. We help each other load it in, and He sorts it out, and uses whatever’s stored up to speak.

It’s so simple that it’s easy to ignore we’re ignoring it ... till we need it! But imagine earnestly asking for an answer in prayer, and having every example in every story stored in your heart. Think it’d be any easier to hear? So I not only studied it, I tried to enjoy it. Tough at first. Like anything worth anything. Till the moment you’re reading it or hearing it or sharing it, and a piece from another part suddenly appears and connects itself, and you realize: it’s talking! To you. Not by magic. By His Word. By your faith. Cuz everything connects! Jesus said:

If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him to be thrown into the sea with a large millstone tied around his neck. – Mark 9:42 NIV

Do you think Jesus just says random stuff? He’s warning the hard-hearted, legalistic heads of the House of Israel to stop using the Law of Moses to keep the children of Israel from receiving the Living Word in their heart. So what better reference than Leviathan, the serpent of the sea?

[The Lord told Job, that] [Leviathan’s] heart is as hard as stone, even as hard as the lower millstone. ... [And] [Leviathan] is king over all the children of pride. – Job 41:24, 34 NKJ

But You, O God, are my King ... You bring Salvation [Yeshua] upon the earth. ... [You] split open the sea by Your power ... [and] crushed the heads of Leviathan – Psalm 74:12-14 NIV

[Jesus said] “I did not come to bring peace, but a Sword.” – Matthew 10:34 NIV

In that day the Lord with His severe Sword, great and strong, will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan that twisted serpent; [Oh, that Leviathan] and He will slay the reptile that is in the sea ... sing to her, “A vineyard of red wine! I, the Lord, keep it,” – Isaiah 27:1-3 NKJ

So, 1) Leviathan's a "her"? And, 2) What's God got against Leviathan? My commentaries say she's either Lotan of Ugaritic mythology, a marine dinosaur that survived the Flood, a whale (of a tale), or a giant crocodile. But I say, why "sing to her, 'A vineyard ... I, the Lord, keep it'?"!

[Well, because, 22 chapters earlier, Isaiah said] Let me sing [Ok?] ... a song of my Beloved regarding His vineyard ... [He] cleared out its stones, and planted it with the choicest Vine. ... For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, – Isaiah 5:1-2, 7 NKJ

Wait. It's not a real vineyard? Nope. It's a symbol. And it's not a real sea-monster in a real sea?

[See for yourself] To what can I liken or compare you, O daughter Jerusalem? What example can I show you ... for great as the sea is your downfall – Lamentations 2:13 NAB

So why is Leviathan's stone-cold heart like a "lower millstone"? Well, here's a lower millstone from Capernaum from the time of Jesus; and it turns out they were in the shape of a human heart! Which hangs around our neck by our jugulars. And if our heart is hardened toward the Lord, we'll be tossed in a sea that only the Living God can calm.

[It all began, once upon a time, when] [The Lord] gave Moses two tablets of the Testimony, [which were just] tablets of stone, [but] written with the finger of God. – Exodus 31:18 NKJ

[And they were called "the Testimony" because] Moses was ... testifying to what would be said in the future. – Hebrews 3:5 NIV

[Like when Jesus said to the stone-cold Pharisees on the very day He'll cast out Legion] "If I cast out demons with the finger of God, surely the kingdom of God has come" – Luke 11:20 NKJ

[And so] Judah's sin is engraved ... on the tablets of their hearts – Jeremiah 17:1 NIV

[Cuz they received the legalism of the stones rather than the Testimony] For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. – John 1:17 NKJ

[And] Of this salvation the prophets ... searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, searching what ... the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand – 1 Peter 1:10-11 NKJ

[You see] [Moses] chose to be mistreated along with the people of God ... [Ask why!] he regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because [1) That's who he was meeting with, face to face; and 2)] he was looking ahead to his reward. [And, 3) He's the One the whole book is about] – Hebrews 11:24-26 NIV

[And now] You show that you are a [love] letter from Christ ... written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone [like ol' Leviathan] but on tablets of human hearts. [And so do as the living God commanded] – 2 Corinthians 3:3 NIV

Store up My commands within you ... and you will live; guard My teachings as the apple of your eye ... [and] write them on the tablet of your heart. – Proverbs 7:1-3 NIV

Let love and faithfulness never leave iathan you; bind them around your neck, [and] write them on the tablet of your heart. – Proverbs 3:3 NIV

Think Jesus just says random stuff? “No. But do we have to care about the Old Testament parts?” No. I’m not telling you to care. I’m telling you to fathom how it works, and to decide whether or not to get a Bible you’ll read, and take it to heart on His terms. And you’ll be tempted to think, “Well that’s hopeless – it’s like a proficient piano player telling me to sit down and just have fun.” It is like that. But you can! Ever hear of Chopsticks? The moment you begin to make music all by yourself, your joy will be like mine. I had just as much joy five years ago; and five years before that; and five before that!

And while you’re softening your heart by storing up the clear lessons in the obvious stories, rest assured your subconscious will be collecting the clues He’ll suddenly use to speak specifically to you, when you need to hear Him most. It’s the strangest thing, like lower millstones, and Leviathan, and Legion. You know, after Jesus calmed the storm there was a dead calm. The boys are rowing, soaking wet, some puking, seasick and scared ... of Jesus’. “Who is this?” (Lk 8:26) “Even the wind and the waves obey Him!” (Mk 4:41) “Couldn’t He have left a little wind – so we didn’t have to row?” Cuz with us, it’s always something!

But up on this hillside among the tombs, possibly inside this very cave, a hurricane, coming to a crashing halt, had to raise the curiosity. It’d be an eerie calm, even for a demon-filled Gadarene. And though he was known for his screams, imagine the noise of Jesus’ boys once they got past their fears: “He just did Psalm 107!” “We just did Psalm 107!” “He is Psalm 107!”

Their voices alerting a massive swarm of killer demons of who’s coming ... and what’s coming.

And if ever there was a time for a blood-curdling Gadarene scream, this was it. “Uh, Jesus, what are we doing?” “Didn’t you read the Script? We’re fulfilling God’s Word to Gad.”

[And so] They went [silently] across the lake [in the dark; and] When He arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes, [Jesus did something not found in the Gospels, but straight out of Isaiah, regarding this very moment; and likely to His disciples’ horror, He screamed: “Here I am! Here I am!” And] a man with an evil spirit came from the tombs ... no one was strong enough to subdue him. Night and day among the tombs and in the hills he would cry out and cut himself with stones. When he saw Jesus from a distance, when Jesus stepped ashore, he ran and he cried out, – Mt 8:28; Mk 5:1-6; Lk 8:26-28 NIV

And one of the disciples might’ve cried out, “Egad – we’re doin’ Isaiah 65!”

Next Sunday.
